

"WHEN THE BUFFALO RAN." Multiply these bison by thousands and one gets some faint idea of the stirring sights that did much to repay Western pioneers for hardships suffered. This is part of the Yellowstone National Park herd. The photograph won second prize in a competition conducted by the American Museum of Natural History.

Haynes.

HOW MANY RUBLES FOR A LOLLYPOP? American confections and candied fruits on sticks have captured Soviet Russia, as this Moscow scene indicates.

Guttmers.

LONDON ELECTS A NEW LORD MAYOR. With their mace and swordbearers, the new Lord Mayor and the retiring Lord Mayor of London are shown, after the ceremony of election at the Guildhall. The new Lord Mayor, Alderman D. C. Moore, stands right center, with the retiring Lord Mayor at his right hand.

Wide World.

AMUNDSEN PREPARES FOR ARCTIC FLIGHT IN AIRPLANE. During the long polar night Captain Amundsen will live on the shores of the Arctic Sea, awaiting an opportunity to fly over the "top of the world." Above is Captain John Blockland at the wheel of the explorer's ship, the C. S. Holmes, and at the left is a picture of the airplane being landed at Deering.

P. & A.

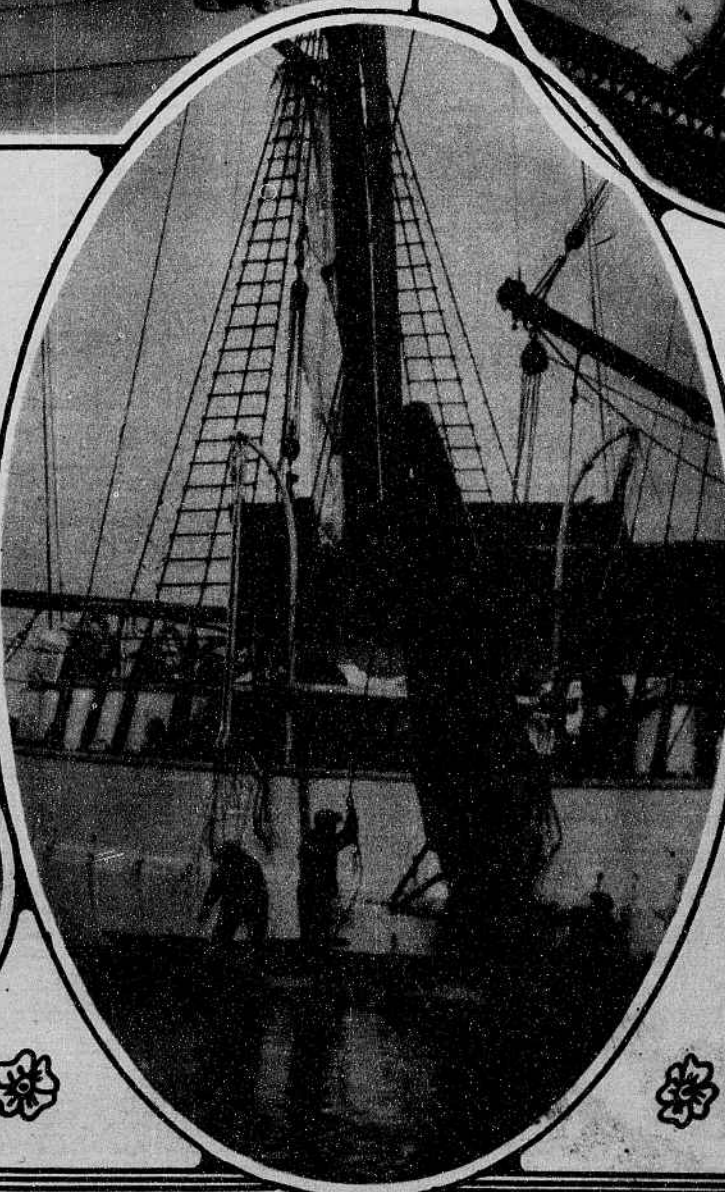

"DANCE OF DEATH." Such is the sign over the "movie" house in Smyrna, which is now used as American relief headquarters. Above is the latest picture of Kemal Pasha, from a street snapshot.

Wide World.

INDIA HEARKENS TO MADAME GANDHI. The "Mother of India" (at right in picture) and former Chief Judge Tyabji are shown in a small Indian cart. Two years ago the mingling of women with men in a political cause in India was unheard of.

International.

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW IN GAY MOOD. A snapshot taken at Ross-lare, Ireland, by Mrs. William Flanagan, of Dublin, who thereby made an obscure donkey famous.

P. & A.